Torrance Theatre Has Big Features

Coming to the Torrance Theatre next week is a group of super-photoplay attractions. Of all the pictures Marshall Neilan has made none has had the moving power of "Minne," which will be shown Sunday, May 20.

The attraction for Tuesday and Wednesday, May 22 and 23, will be the thrilling photoplay of fine pictorial value, "On the High Seas," with Dorothy Dalton and Jack Holt.

Just who are the "Poor Men's Wives"—those rich in money or rich in love? This is the theme of the Preferred Picture of that title, which will be presented Thursday and Friday, May 24 and 25, at the Torrance Theatre. Written by Frank Dazey and Agnes Christine Johnson, the authors of "Rich Men's Wives" the companion piece of this play, "Poor Men's Wives" is a greater picture than their first Gasnier production, for it reaches more intimate heights and touches closer to our own lives.

As Laura, Barbara LaMarr has the role of her career. In her scenes with David Butler, who plays the young husband, she rises to emotional heights that surprised and delighted even her strongest fans. The story is the simple, gripping type theatregoers like most.

Coming Saturday, May 26, is "Backbone," with Alfred Lunt, Edith Roberts and a most distinctive cast. Entertainment plus! That's Clarence Budington Kelland's great Saturday Evening Post story done into thrilling pictures. The great lumber camps of the North Woods are a rugged and beautiful background to a heart-winning romance with its roots back in the brave old days of clashing steel. Alfred Lunt, handsome, stalwart, engaging, bringing to the screen the plaudits and ability of his stage success plays the kind of a two-fisted hero that places him immediately among the stars.

Mrs. George Bailey and Mrs. Karl Stegmayer of Torrance Park spent Wednesday in Long Beach.

CATHOLIC SERVICES

Catholic services will be held the third and fourth Sunday of every month at 8 a. m., the other Sundays at 9:30 a. m., at the Torrance Catholic hall on North Cota.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES

Morning prayer and sermon will be held Sunday at 9 o'clock in the theatre.

REV. THOMAS P. SWIFT,

Sixth Tract Is Now Open For Investors

After having sold five different tracts in the oil bearing districts Vonderahe & Crowell, real estate agents at Carson and Cabrillo, Torrance, have been requested by several local investors to put on the sixth tract so that the home people may have another opportunity to get in on some of the high-class property that looks so favorable for oil. They have made arrangements to handle another ten acres, divided into twenty one-twentieths undivided interests for a reasonable sum. Their plan is explained in their quarter-page advertisement in this issue. Anyone desiring to invest with them may do so by calling at their office before Saturday night.

BE BRIEF

When you've got a thing to say, say it;

Don't take half a day. When your tale's got little in it, Crowd the whole thing in a minute.

Life is short, a fleeting vapor—Don't you fill an eight-page paper With a tale which at a pinch Could be crowded in an inch. Boil her down until she simmers. Polish her until she glimmers. When you've got a thing to say, say it; Don't take half a day. —R. G.
